AFFIDAVIT

Came this day before me a person well known to me as Dixie J. (Atkinson) Busby, and having had the oath required by law administered to her, she did depose:

1. I, Dixie J. Busby, D.O.B. 11/20/63 state that Katherine B. Middleton was my aunt; Geraldine Lookhart is my mother, and Mildred Anderson is my aunt (sisters). I was in a conversation with Geraldine and Mildred in the spring of 1990, after Kenneth G. Middleton was released from jail, when Geraldine and Mildred stated that the capital prosecutor, Pat Peters, had "tied up" all of Ken and Kathy's estate for them. Also, Pat Peters requested they hire a Blue Springs, Missouri law firm to file civil lawsuits against Kenneth Middleton, and his property. Geraldine and Mildred said they hired the law firm which Peters had suggested, and were guaranteed that they would take Ken for everything he had and would help keep him in prison.!

Having stated the above, the affiant said no more and in witness of the truth of the above statement did affix her signature below on this 17th day of Sept, 1996.
